

HAPPY SPEECHES MARK RECEPTION

United Presbyterian College Presidents "Talk Shop" and Tell Humorous Stories.

AT CLOSE OF CONFERENCE

Will Ask Church For $100,000 For Benefit of Colleges and Theological Seminaries.

RECEIVE $45,000 HERETOFORE

Basis of Distribution is Changed—Conference Will be Annual Event Hereafter.

A series of happy and informal speeches marked the public reception in the United Presbyterian church last night which came at the close of a day's conference here between the presidents of the colleges and theological seminaries under the supervision of the United Presbyterian church and Dr. W. T. Campbell, secretary of the board of education of the church.

The night reception was a very fitting climax to the day of strenuous work for the educators even though they did "talk shop" as Dr. T. H. McMichael of Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., who presided at the speechmaking, indicated in making the closing talk.

The noted educators were given a hearty and welcome hand at the small gathering. Due to the inclement weather the crowd was not large but there were enough to make the college presidents feel at home and they caught a breath of Rushville's hospitality in the hour that they mixed and conversed with Rushville people. They all expressed their gratitude and thanks for the sociability and kindnesses exhibited for them during their stay here and all were gratified that the conference was held here instead of Chicago as was originally intended.

Many things of great importance to the United Presbyterian church and its colleges and seminaries were accomplished during the conference yesterday. The question of standardization of the U. P. colleges evoked much discussion as did the question of distributing the funds of the church. It was finally agreed that Cooper College of Sterling, Kansas, should have two thousand dollars annually additional until 1915, and that the remainder of the fund should be divided among the educational institutions under the same plan that has been in operation in the past.

The Rev. A. W. Jamieson of the local organization introduced Dr. T. H. McMichael of Monmouth College and he presided at the meeting after all of the Rushville people had been introduced to the college presidents. Dr. McMichael is well known in this city, having spoken here at Men's Big Meetings, and at other places. He presided in an excellent manner and introduced the speakers, always in a pleasing way. He had a story that was especially appropriate for each speaker. In fact, good humorous tales abounded and each college president vied with the other to see which could tell the best story.

Dr. J. A. Thompson, president of Tarkio College, at Tarkio, Mo., who found last night that he knew many Rushville people in former years, was first introduced, and he evened matters with Dr. McMichael who poked some fun at him because his head is bald. Dr. Thompson had some few anecdotes and then he launched forth on his part of the "shop talk."

Dr. Thompson declared there is a growing need of church educational institutions to combat the State and larger universities which are now enjoying a rather remarkable growth. He said the heads of the universities as well as do the small college presidents realize the colleges should make a greater plea for students. He pointed out that the university has no place or time to work with immature students from the high school who should begin in the small college before going to the university for specialization. Students of this class are a burden to the university, he said. Dr. Thompson asserted that the small college and university presidents are not at loggerheads but are working toward the same end, the common good in educational circles. There is an imperative need now, he said, of the enlargement of the foundation of the church institutions, as they can not work as they did a quarter of a century ago.

Dr. R. T. Campbell, president of Cooper College, Sterling, Kansas, who was introduced as the "baby" of the college presidential group, since he has been president of Cooper less than two years, and the man with the red hair, by Dr. McMichael, replied that he saw no reason why red hair should be made the subject of ridicule, unless it is the same reason we make fun of the Irishman's wit; because we admire it so much. He declared he preferred his own red hair in preference to the gray or none at all, pointing to Dr. McMichael and Dr. Thompson at the time.

Dr. Campbell, who probably possesses some of the Irish blood that accounts for his wit, had a wealth of good stories. He asked Indiana people not to speak disparagingly of Kansas until it had been given a just trial. He said it is not so bad as it seems. Dr. Campbell declared that the wind was the only thing against Kansas, and that no Kansas man would let a foreigner speak a word against that even. He said shortly after he had taken up residence in Kansas he chased his hat for four blocks before he caught it. A native of Kansas remarked that he was an easterner for Kansas people never run after their hats; they just let them go and catch the first one which blows by. He praised Kansas and said that Cooper College is located in the center. "Place your hand on Cooper on the map," he continued, "and you will be at the hub of Kansas."

Dr. McMichael observed that all of the members of the presidential menagerie had been exhibited and that two of the most promising specimens, which he had hoped would be present, had escaped, namely, Dr. R. M. Russell, president of Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa., and Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, president of Muskingum College, New Concord, Ohio. They both received telegrams early last evening to come home at once. But Dr. McMichael pointed out that he had even a more unique specimen, a theological professor, and he introduced Dr. John E. Wishard of Xenia Theological Seminary, Xenia, Ohio.

Dr. Wishard did not live up to the reputation of a theologian as he told some stories that put the audience in convulsions. Dr. Wishard by common consent won the honors of the evening by poking jibs at all of the presidential group.

Growing serious, he said that there is much hope for the cause of Christianity in the laymen's movement which is sweeping the country. He declared the students in theological schools are not adequate but the conditions are growing better annually. He said this is not only true in the U. P. seminaries but also in those of other denominations.

Dr. McMichael closed the speechmaking in his characteristic manner. He pointed out that all of the college men had "talked shop" but that is their business, that is what they are paid for. He stated that it is their creed, the first article of which is their belief in higher education. The second article, he said, is their belief in Christian education, and the third, belief in denominational education.

PREPARE FOR CHARITY BALL

Workers Begin This Morning to Arrange Factory For Social Event.

DRESS SUITS ARE TABOOED

Rumor That There Will be no Light or Heat in Building is Idle Gossip.

Work was started this afternoon to prepare the Rushville Furniture Company's new factory for the third annual charity ball which will be held New Year's night. The building is all new and will be an ideal place for what is conceded will be the most brilliant social event in Rushville this winter.

There has been a persistent report started by unknown persons that there will be no heat nor light in the new factory and at the last moment the charity ball will have to be abandoned. This is idle gossip as the Rushville Furniture Company has equipped the building with a most thorough heating, ventilating and lighting system. It was all installed at a great cost and the conditions in this respect could not be made better any place in Rushville. The building will be brilliantly lighted with electricity made by the company's own plant.

The charity workers wish it plainly understood that the ball will be a very informal affair. Dress suits will be tabooed and there will be very few if any worn. This report also has been current that the ball will be very formal which is exactly contrary to the way it has been in the past and contrary to the way it will be this time. Charity workers say this is more idle talk.

Dressing rooms will be provided which will be as exclusive as could possibly be made so. The new offices at the factory building will be converted into the women's dressing room and every convenience will be provided. A men's dressing room will be provided at one end of the building.

There will be plenty of room to accommodate more than the number of people which is expected. Space will be at a premium. This afternoon the erection of the stage for the orchestra of colored musicians who will play was begun.

The charity workers in charge of the ticket sale say that not quite as many have been sold so far this year as there were for the last ball in 1909. They expect, however, to dispose of more than were ever sold before. Tickets have been sold in many of the small towns in the county and an effort will be made to sell some in the surrounding cities.

There is no doubt but what the proceeds of the ball will go to a worthy cause and for that reason it will be supported well. The women who have conducted charity work here for the last seven or eight years are well acquainted with the indigent worthy families of the city and they accomplish much good each year with the money placed in their hands.

STRUCK HER WITH WOOD.

New Castle Courier: Mrs. Laura Lawson of Knightstown has entered suit for divorce against her husband, Scott D. Lawson. In her complaint she charges that her husband struck her with a stick of stovewood and that he refused to provide for her.

ACCEPTS CALL.

The Rev. Mr. Thomas of Indianapolis has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Homer Christian church and services will be held every other Sunday instead of once a month.

TWO MEN IN POLICE COURT

One Fined $10 and Costs; Other Left City.

Greely Perkins and James Cox appeared in police court this morning on the charge of being drunk. Perkins was fined $10 and costs and went back to jail for twenty days. Cox, who is a tramp printer from Paris, Ky., was allowed to go free if he would leave the city. He came here yesterday afternoon and in a few hours had a lovely "package." He was picked out of the gutter about twelve o'clock last night.

BEST HOLIDAY TRADE IN YEARS

Merchants Are Almost Unanimous in Opinion That Pre-Christmas Business is Above Average.

CAMPAIGN IS RESPONSIBLE

Business Men Are Elated Over Success—Day of Clearance Sales Coming.

"I had the best trade during the holidays that my store has ever enjoyed during a similar time," said a Rushville merchant this morning. This is true of most every business in the city. They are practically agreed that the trade in the few weeks previous to Christmas was more productive than ever before in the life of the present generation of business men.

As one business man said this morning there is only one reason for the excellent business enjoyed here. The business men have conducted a campaign for business which has had results. The Rushville Retail Merchants Association has done things and so enlivened the city that people in this and adjoining counties have learned that Rushville is wide awake and making a bid for business.

Business men generally are enthusiastic about the Christmas carnival. It attracted many people to Rushville to do their Christmas shopping. At night the streets in the business district presented a beautiful sight. The cluster light posts have been arrayed in cedar and holly during the Christmastide and the decorations have no doubt assisted much in the campaign which business men have been conducting.

Business has been rather dull this week but not so dull as it generally is immediately following the Christmas rush. Clerks have been busy much of the time exchanging Christmas presents. Many of the stores will begin closing at six o'clock next week according to the custom and will continue under this plan until March first.

Not many days will elapse before the January clearance sales will begin and business will be alive again.

WILL ATTEND BOUT.

Quite a few fight "fans" will attend the Dillon-Houck fight in Indianapolis New Year's afternoon. This will decide the middleweight championship of the world.

BREAKING FOR CORN.

Some farmers have begun breaking ground for the next year's corn crop. A large crop will be put out, probably 25 per cent larger than this year, on account of drought of last summer killing the young clover in some fields which will be put in corn next spring.

The "curfew" rings in three thousand and American and Canadian towns.

MANY ORDER MORE SEALS

Indiana Towns and Cities Work Hard This Week For Prize Given by Red Cross Society.

HOLIDAY WEEK SALE HEAVY

Seals Carry a New Year's Greeting And Are Expected to be Popular Until Then.

Determined not to let another community win the vacuum cleaner without working extra hard this week, several Indiana cities and towns have ordered additional supplies of seals. One city sent in an order for 50,000 seals, another smaller locality ordered 5,000 more, and other agents in other places have asked for additional quantities.

Inasmuch as the seals carry a New Years greeting they are expected to be as popular in their use on New Years cards and letters as they were on Christmas mail matter. Besides this use, a number of Indiana business men have purchased the seals, intending to place them on cards bearing their New Years greetings to customers.

Some of the workers are selecting prominent business men in their communities and asking them to purchase from 500 to 1,000 Red Cross Christmas seals to help their city win. Where the contest is close between different localities, these persons are being asked to contribute toward the fund from the standpoint of civic pride in helping their community to head the list of Indiana cities and towns in the sales per inhabitant.

Although the agents in some communities are not boasting about their sales, it is known that in some places between four and five Red Cross seals per capita have already been sold. When they were in turn told that another city was pressing them close they started in again to win the laurels, and when the contest closes at midnight, Saturday, December 30, there is expected to be a number of surprises.

IMPORTED STALLION DIES

Valuable Coach Horse Chokes to Death on Oats.

The big imported German coach stallion belonging to James B. Clark, of Clarksburg, choked to death while eating oats. The stallion was 20 years old but was still a valuable animal. There are scores of horses in this county which perpetuate the blood of the animal, which has been a favorite among the breeders for years. Mr. Clark did not place a price on the horse, but he said that the loss would be heavy.

WON MANY POULTRY PRIZES

Claude Thomas, Formerly of Here, "Cleaned up" at Chicago.

Claude Thomas of Moores Hill, Ind., formerly of this city, and a brother of Ernest Thomas, continues to make good in the poultry business. At the recent Chicago poultry show, Mr. Thomas took first, second, third and fourth prizes in four classes of bantams and won a silver cup for the best display of Cochins bantams.

BLOOD POISON RESULTS

Chloris Hungerford Receives Small Scratch in Basketball Game.

Chloris Hungerford of St. Paul is seriously ill with blood poisoning which resulted from a scratch received in a basketball game a week ago Tuesday. The game was between St. Paul and Waldron. During the game Hungerford received a slight scratch upon the arm, but thought nothing of the injury. Within a few days it began to give him trouble and he is now said to be very ill.

COLD WEATHER HELPS FARMER

He is Able to Work in Corn Field Now Without Wading in Water and Mud.

MAY FINISH THE FALL WORK

Wednesday's freeze will give the farmers the first opportunity they have had for weeks of getting into the corn fields with wagons. Corn husking has been seriously interrupted by the rains and there is a great deal of corn out and exposed to the weather.

On Tuesday every farmer in this locality who had corn to husk disregarded the soft ground and drove into his field. A full load of corn could not be pulled out of the field because the wagon wheels cut through into the earth and stuck there.

When the ground is sufficiently frozen to bear up a load the farmers will be able to make some progress in gathering their corn. In many places water stood in the fields and corn huskers were obliged to wade.

POLICE CALLED TO QUELL DISTURBANCE

Razors Are Flashed and Rict Seems Imminent When Colored Masons Hold Open Meeting.

LODGE IS NOT RESPONSIBLE

"If I had had a razor there would have been somethin' doin' with them niggers, that's what I'm tellin' you," said a colored woman who had just left the colored Masonic hall last night, after a fracas had ensued. The police were called to quell the disturbance. The colored Masons held a social there last night and some unruly colored men burst into the hall and broke up the meetin'. The police nor the public hold the colored Masons responsible for the trouble.

When Chief of Police McAllister arrived it was as pandemonium had just broken loose. It appeared then that there was danger of a riot. One drunken colored man was taken from the hall. When another flashed a razor and declared his intention of slashing things, Chief McAllister started to draw his revolver which stopped the whole affair. It was settled peaceably and no arrests were made. It was an open meeting which accounts for the non-members being present.

—Dennis O'Neil will leave tomorrow for West Baden, where he will take treatment. Wallace Morgan will act as prosecutor in the absence of Mr. O'Neil.

RUSH COUNTY TO SUPPORT HACK

Will Stand by Shelby County Candidate For District Chairman at Democratic Convention.

HAS PROMISE OF 68 VOTES

Split in Wayne Will Give Beck Only Seven Delegates From There, Making Hack Winner.

The thirteen delegates elected yesterday afternoon to represent this county at the Democratic district convention in Connersville will vote for Charles Hack of Shelbyville for district chairman. The delegates were instructed to vote for the Shelby county candidate and he will have the unanimous support of the Rush county delegation.

The convention promises to be a lively affair as there are at least four candidates in the field for the chairmanship. The Henry county delegation will support Dr. F. A. Bosler of New Castle. A split-up has occurred in Wayne county and it is understood the delegates are divided for Charles Beck and Charles Hack, giving Hack 19 votes and Beck 7. With Rush and Shelby for Hack and also a majority of Wayne county and a solid vote from Hancock, it would seem as though he will be the next district chairman. Before the convention Hack has a promise of 68 votes and as it takes 60 to elect, his election is practically assured.

The Franklin county delegation will support Herman Trichler and at present he is the only real opponent of Mr. Hack.

The township convention in this county was one of the best ever held, according to the Democratic leaders here. The enthusiasm was great and a heavy vote was polled. Not for many a day has there been so much interest in politics shown by local Democrats as yesterday. In the townships outside of the city the elections were rather mild and very little interest was shown.

The delegates from this county are as follows:

Rushville — Tom Cauley and Charles Markle.
Anderson — Harlan Overleese.
Noble — J. Frank Wilson.
Richland — Ollie Cook.
Walker — E. Inlow.
Ripley — Irwin Price.
Posey — Eli Collins.
Washington — Elvia Poer.
Union — Fred Moore.
Orange — C. L. Tevis.
Center — Walter Bitner.
Jackson — Rufus Rhodes.

BLUE RIDGE TAKES TWO

Independent and High School Fives Both Win at Waldron.

In two very fast games of basketball on the Waldron floor, the Waldron independent and high school teams went down in defeat before their mighty opponents, the respective teams of Blue Ridge. The preliminary game between the two high school teams was very fast and ended by the score of 20 to 13 in favor of Blue Ridge. The Waldron team was no match for the clever boys from Blue Ridge, and all that their team could do was to play a defensive game. The game ended by the overwhelming score of 35 to 19 in favor of Blue Ridge.

THE MYSTERIOUS "P. O. 247"

It Was Under This Name Operations of Giant Pool Were Carried on, According to Testimony Brought Out in the Hearing of the Packers at Chicago, These Letters and Figures Standing for Combine's P. O. Box.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—In the trial of the ten Chicago packers charged with violation of the Sherman antitrust law, E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel corporation, and P. A. Valentine, formerly treasurer for Armour & Co., figured.

The names of the two financiers, who are in New York, came out when Pierce Butler, assistant to the attorney general, questioned Albert H.
Veeder regarding contract No. 7, which provided for a loan of $15,000,000 in the formation of the National Packing company. The reading of the agreement showed that Mr. Gary was to take over all the assets of packers in consideration for the loan. Mr. Valentine signed the agreement in behalf of J. Ogden Armour.

The old pool of packers, it developed, was known only as "P. O. Box 247." Mr. Veeder testified that he knew of no name for the association, but it was said that "P. O. 247" was the mysterious name under which the pool worked.

The merger of the following plants by the Chicago packers he said became known later as the National Packing company: United Dressed Beef company of New York, purchased June 10, 1902, by the Morris interests; Fowler
Packing company, purchased June 11, 1902, by the Swifts; Hammond Packing company, purchased June 11, 1902,
by the Armour interests; Omaha Packing company, purchased June 11, 1902,
by the Armours; St. Louis Dressed Beef and Provision company, purchased June 25, 1902, by the Morris interests.

Veeder was asked why the Chicago packers did not take over the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger business in November, 1902, as contemplated.
Mr. Veeder explained that the $500-000,000 merger of the packers was in progress, but that the financial strain of 1903 prevented the promoters from securing a loan of $90,000,000 from New York bankers to carry the deal through. Kuhn, Loeb & Co., as managers of the syndicate, were to receive either one-fifth of the syndicate's profits or 1 per cent of its par value. After James Stillman, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and E. H. Harriman failed to produce the $90,000,000, Mr. Veeder said a loan of $15,000,000 was made by the same financiers in July, 1903, for the formation of the National Packing company.

The Illinois Trust and Savings bank had been made trustee to all the contracts entered into by J. Ogden Armour, Edward Morris and Gustavus Swift in 1902, according to the testimony of the witness. A loan of $8-000,000 from the First National bank made to the Armour, Swift & Morris interests toward the formation of the National Packing company was also revealed.

Receipts shown by Attorney Veeder disclosed that the Morris, Swift, Armour and Cudahy interests deposited with the Illinois Trust and Savings bank $4,000,000 as a matter of good faith when the $500,000,000 merger was contemplated in 1902. Agreements between the packers and the bank relative to the deposits were read into the record. An agreement on July 18, 1902, made Michael Cudahy a party to the contemplated $500,000,000 merger also.

The government intends to show that the National Packing company paid back the loan of $15,000,000 with accrued interest to the New York and Chicago financiers.

tions closely. He has had long expe-

CHINESE DELEGATES RALLY AROUND SUN

Reformer Stated for First President of Republic.

Shanghai, Dec. 28.—Sun Yat Sen is receiving deferential visits from numerous governors, generals, provincial delegates and other prominent Chinese throughout the empire who have been attracted here in great numbers by the present trend of events, and the indications are that his star is on the way to the zenith. None of the rebel leaders have hitherto received such respect as the doctor. Among other visitors who called to see the leader were all the delegates to the Nanking conference, who represent eighteen revolted provinces. They came here especially to greet Dr. Sun, and it is reported that they will meet at Nanking and elect him president of the "provisional government of the United Provinces of China." After this has been done it is stated that Dr. Sun will appoint his cabinet and issue a proclamation offering the throne terms of peaceful surrender. If these terms are not accepted a military campaign will proceed and Peking will be besieged.

Meanwhile the national convention scheme is under discussion. Wu Ting fang, representing the Republicans, and Tang Shao Yi, representing the government, had a long talk on this idea, but made no announcement as to the result of their conference. Well informed people believe that Wu Ting fang and his followers do not object to the principle of a national convention, but dissent to the long delay which they believe Premier Yuan Shih Kai would employ to strengthen the army and the imperial finances.

WILL TELL WHEN THE TIME COMES

Man Who Had Too Much Dynamite Weakens.

PUT THROUGH THIRD DEGREE

When Pennsylvania Authorities Finished Their Examination of George Bridges the Latter Wearily Declared That He Would Clear Himself of
"This Mess" by Implicating Others,
Who Would Go Along With Him.

Monessen, Pa., Dec. 28.—Following a partial confession made by George Bridges, the alleged dynamite, who was arrested with a suitcase containing seventy-seven sticks of dynamite and fuses, the police express the belief that they have uprooted further dyna-miting plots.

"I am going to clear myself of this mess," said the prisoner. "I will not take all the blame for this thing. The rest of them will have to take their medicine. What there is to tell I will tell when the time comes."

Detectives regard this statement by Bridges as equivalent to a confession that the plot existed to blow up the plants of the Pittsburgh Steel company and other concerns here, employing upward of 8,000 non-union workmen.

The brief statement made by the prisoner caused a sensation. There had been a suspicion that perhaps after all Bridges had directed suspicion against himself and deliberately caused his own arrest later to completely prove his innocence and thereby dissipate certain labor sentiment that is the outcome of the McNamara crimes. The authorities, however, submitted the prisoner to a rigorous third degree ordeal and Bridges told all about himself, his family and his past occupation, finally wearily giving up the game he had played and promising that he would make a full confession. The arrest and partial confession of Bridges was followed by the discovery of an attempt to blow up the plants of McDonald and Hartman, lumber dealers at Rochester, Pa. When news of this plot reached here the authorities of both places began trying to connect the two gangs. Twenty-four sticks of dynamite, twelve caps wrapped in cotton and ten yards of fuse were found alongside the contractors' plant.

Near Rochester many crimes were committed that later were traced to the McNamaras and Ortie McManigal.
John Bridges, a brother of the prisoner, said that in his belief George had done no wrong, but that he had been a scapegoat for others. The brother, John, formerly was employed here as a bartender. The prisoner lived in Homestead for some years. He has a wife and child, but says he knows nothing of their whereabouts.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 28.—There is are vehemently denied. The anger of the people has been greatly increased by statements that the Persians tortured wounded Russian soldiers and mutilated the killed. It may be expected that as soon as all the soldiery now on the way arrive at Tabriz the natives will pay dearly for their share.

It is evident that Russia intends to hold a bloody assize.

The Persian Account of It.

London, Dec. 28.—The Persian committee in London has received Persian accounts of what happened at Tabriz.
According to these accounts, the Ta-briz people only began to defend themselves from Russian attacks after they had exercised the most extraordinary forbearance, and they ceased defending themselves on receipt of orders from Teheran. They accuse the Russians, in addition to the previous charges of various outrages, of driving over school children and trampling them under the horses' feet.

NOT GUILTY

This Is the Verdict of the Jury in New York Factory Fire Horror.

New York, Dec. 28.—Max Blanck and Isaac Harris were acquitted of the charge of manslaughter which was brought against them after the fire in the Triangle waist factory, of which they were the owners, last March. One hundred and forty-six persons lost their lives in the fire. The jury was out one hour and forty minutes. It was said that they took three ballots and that on the first the vote stood eight for acquittal, two for conviction and two not voting.

The indictments on which Blanck and Harris were acquitted charged them with manslaughter while engaged in the commission of a misdemeanor, the misdemeanor being a violation of the section of the labor law which requires that factory doors be kept unlocked during working hours.

SHOWS WILLFUL ACT VIOLATIONS

H. E. Barnard in Annual Report Discusses And Prosecutions During Fiscal Year.

UPHOLDS HIS CONTENTION

Declares Many Manufacturers And Food Distributors Still Violate
Food and Drugs Law.

That there are still many manufacturers and distributors of food and drugs who willfully violate the pure food and drug laws is asserted by H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, in his annual report. He shows figures to substantiate his contention, announcing, announcing that 233 prosecutions were brought in such cases during the year ended Sept. 30. The total number of fines and costs levied reached $5-311.25.

In almost no case was the defendant found not guilty. Most of the cases were first offenses and the minimum fine of $10 and costs was usually imposed.

Fifty-one cases were brought because of the maintenance of insanity conditions. Cases numbering 182 involved some violation of the pure food and drug law. Fifty-three cases were filed against dairymen because of the sale of dirty milk and cream. In every instance the conviction was obtained. Following the crusade against the sale of bad eggs inaugurated in the early spring, thirty-three prosecutions and convictions were brought against dealers who sold eggs which were putrid or decomposed. Fifteen dealers who exposed food stuffs for sale without properly protecting them against flies, dust and dirt were prosecuted and convicted.

Fourteen prosecutions were brought against dairymen, who sold milk or cream which contained less than the required butter fat. Sixteen cases involved the sale of cider containing benzoate of soda or saccharin, and eight cases were because of the sale of soft drinks similarly adulterated. No failure to convict for the sale of goods containing either saccharin or benzoate of soda has been recorded during the year.

Three prosecutions were brought successfully against dealers who sold clemargarine for butter. In four instances butchers were convicted for selling sausage containing added starch. Eight cases involved the use of an illegal label.

In the list of cases brought for the maintenance of insan-ity conditions in violation of the sanitary food law were those of five dairymen who maintained filthy dairies, fourteen grocers whose departments were in-sanitary, two meat markets and seven slaughter houses which were unclean, seven bakeries which did not conform to the requirements, six restaurants which were improperly kept and dirty. Three butchers pleaded guilty and were fined for maintaining insanitary refrigerators.
One proprietor of a food producing establishment pleaded guilty to neglect to provide proper fly screens, and one dealer was delinquent in maintaining a dirty back yard. A baker operating a dirty bread wagon was also fined for being delinquent.
In none of the cases was the verdict of the lower court reversed by a higher court.

REPORTS PROVE RABIES FATAL

Pathological Head of State Board of Health Say Disease is Not Conjectural.

*RESULTS OF EXAMINATIONS

During the Year The Heads of 221 Animals Are Examined for the Rabies.

Dr. J. P. Simonds, superintendent of the pathological laboratory of the state board of health, in his current annual report, shows that he has little faith in the statement that rabies, as a disease of the human and lower animal bodies, is purely imaginative or conjectural. Early last January, Dr. Simonds sets out, a boy, eight years old, near Hillsdale, Vermillion county, was bitten by a dog. The dog disappeared and was not killed. Little was thought of the bite until some days ago, when the child became ill and was taken to Indianapolis, in the hope the state board had money for treatment. At that time there was no fund available, and the child was placed in the city hospital through the efforts of Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the board, where he died of so-called "dumb rabies" after an illness of eleven days. An autopsy showed some congestion of vessels in the brain. In the pathological library, an examination showed the presence of negri bodies, the sign of rabies. A solution of a part of the brain was made and two guinea pigs were injected with the solution. A third pig was injected with fluid from the spinal cord of the boy, and this one showed no symptoms of rabies. Both the others died of rabies. The brain of one of the pigs that died was emulsified and a fourth pig infected with the emulsion, and the fourth pig died of rabies.

"This record," Dr. Simonds has written in his report, "should convince the most skeptical that rabies as a disease is a terrible reality. It is hardly possible that this eight-year-old boy and these guinea pigs imagined they had rabies and died of imagination."

During the year, the heads of 221 animals were examined for rabies. Twenty-two heads were received in such a condition examination was not possible. Of the total number examined, 107, or 48.4 per cent., were found infected with negri bodies. Professor Burrage, of Purdue university, who co-operates with the pathological laboratory, reported that in nine additional cases examined by him negri bodies were present. These cases were in Tippecanoe county.

The greatest number of specimens at the state laboratory was received during September. While the greatest number, by seasons, was received during the summer, the greatest percentage of heads showing the negri bodies was received in the winter and spring. Heads were received from nine northern counties, twenty central and seventeen southern.

Dr. Simonds chronicles the following incident, which he pronounces as puzzling: The brain of a dog which had bitten a number of persons was received May 11. Microscopic examination failed to show negri bodies. A guinea pig was injected on the same day with an emulsion of the brain. On June 22 the pig appeared to be sick. It refused to eat, and had a number of slight convulsions. By June 24 it had completely recovered. On August 15 this pig was bled to death, and five tenths cubic centimeter of its blood serum was used in making an emulsion of a pen-sized piece of a dog's brain which contained many very large negri bodies. The emulsion was allowed to stand for eight hours and was injected August 17 into the subdural space (the brain) of another guinea pig. At the time the report was written the pig had not shown signs of rabies, although that was about three months later.

"We are still uncertain," wrote Dr. Simonds, "that the first dog actually had rabies. The fact that the first guinea pig recovered is very strong evidence that the symptoms it showed were not those of rabies. But the fact that the blood serum of this pig appeared to destroy the known rabie virus in the brain of second dog suggests at least the possibility that it may have had a mild, nonfatal form of rabies which developed the power in its own blood to destroy the rabies germs from the brain of the second dog."

That he is the oldest resident of the United States is the assertion of a Cherokee Indian in Virginia, who claims he has lived more than one hundred and twenty years.

AN ACCOUNTING NOW DEMANDED

State Files Suit Against Former County Recorder.

FAILED TO COMPROMISE CASE

When W. D. Zimmerman, Former Recorder of Gibson County, Failed to Make Settlement of Alleged Shortage Disclosed by Investigation of the State Board of Accounts the Attorney General Took Action.

Princeton, Ind., Dec. 28.—Prosecutor Trippet has filed in circuit court here a suit against W. D. Zimmerman, former county recorder, and his bondsmen for $3,373.58, and 6 per cent interest and penalty of 10 per cent from Jan. 1, 1907, the time at which Zimmerman's second term of four years as recorder expired. The prosecutor will also file suit for about $2,400 against the same persons for alleged shortages during Zimmerman's first term of office, from 1899 to 1903.

It is charged by state field examiners, who went over the books over a year ago, that Zimmerman is short these amounts on fees and excess salary. Zimmerman refused or failed to compromise with the state board when given opportunity to do so, and the papers for the suit were certified down to the Gibson county prosecutor by Attorney General Honan. The cases are expected to come to trial in February, and will be among the largest that have been contested in Indiana since the accounting board system was inaugurated.

Zimmerman, a prominent Republican, was formerly a farmer and owns considerable real estate. He is now engaged in real estate business here.

ANOTHER ARREST

Gary Pay Roll Swindle Develops a New Sensation.

Gary, Ind., Dec. 28.—Arthur G. Savage, one of the most prominent business men of Gary, has been arrested in connection with the pay roll frauds of the United States Steel corporation's Gary plants. Savage is accused of receiving stolen money, it being alleged that he cashed a forged check under an assumed name. Four charges are made against him and his bonds totaled $8,000.

This is the fifth arrest in connection with the pay roll frauds in which the steel trust is said to have lost $100,000. Charles Pitzels, John Caldwell and Thomas Brookes, former time keepers, are now serving at the Jeffersonville reformatory for their part in the frauds.

Savage is married and was regarded as one of the most exemplary young men in the city.

Two Boys and a Gun.

Petersburg, Ind., Dec. 28.—Oliver Harris, aged sixteen, son of Noah Harris, was accidentally shot by Bryan Reel while hunting rabbits here. The Reel boy was climbing a fence when his shotgun was discharged. The charge of shot struck young Harris in the hands, tearing off two fingers from one hand and the thumb from the other.

Didn't Stop the Wedding.

South Bend, Ind., Dec. 28.—Enraged because his adopted daughter paid no heed to him, but went ahead preparing to marry his nephew, Edward Maillette interrupted the ceremony by giving the prospective bridegroom a beating. His assault, however, did not prevent the marriage taking place. He was arrested.

Tree Fell on Lad.

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 28.—The twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Esta Hodson accompanied his uncles to a woods where they cut a tree. The lad ran in the wrong direction when the tree fell and the top of it caught the boy and crushed him about the chest. His recovery is doubtful.

Baby Killed by Accidental Shot.

Shoals, Ind., Dec. 28.—Dexter Garrett, aged two, son of Frank Garrett, was accidentally shot and killed by his older brother at Burns City. The elder boy was putting a shotgun away under a bed when the gun was discharged. The baby's leg was blown off close to the body.

Stray Shot Strikes Woman.

Lafayette, Ind., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Lewis Kaiser, wife of a Monon railroad conductor, is in the hospital here with a bullet wound in her thigh. Mrs. Kaiser was walking in her back yard when a bullet fired by some unknown person struck her.

Caught at the Crossing.

Lagro, Ind., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Elma Higgins, aged sixty-five, was struck and killed by a traction car on the Port Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction line here. She was walking across the track and did not see the car as it approached.

Rejoins Long Lost Sister.

Wabash, Ind., Dec. 28.—After receiving a letter saying his sister, long mourned as dead, was living in North Carolina, Thomas Jester of this city started for the south to visit her.

The tortoise used to be considered the synonym of slowness, but that was before they set out to jail the packers.

We are convinced that no matter how busy a man may be, he should at least take the time to read the headlines of the President's messages.

Mr. Edison's concrete furniture will never satisfy the Small Boy. What will he have them to try his new Christmas jack-knife on?

W. E. D. Stokes can now reflect that if he had gone to prayer meeting that night, he never would have got into that mess with the shooting show girls.

It is now intimated that Roosevelt may receive the support of Wall street for President. Next we shall learn that Anthony Comstock has carried hell.

Twenty-five thousand Cleveland people are boycotting eggs for three weeks. As the political spell binders will soon be around, it seems very desirable to conserve the supply.

Gov. Garey of Wyoming says not two per cent of the male voters of his State would be willing to repeal the women suffrage act. It is very evident who is head of the house in Wyoming, and also clear that discipline is well maintained.

Senator LaFollette has opened his campaign for the presidency in Ohio. It is not expected that the Senator, with the assistance of the Indianapolis Sun, will set the world on fire.

If the Republican party would follow the heterogeneous assortment of policies advocated by the Indianapolis Sun, to please its editor, it could never be recognized as the G. O. P. when met with away from home.

Mr. McDonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, says the Canadians are now sorry they rejected reciprocity. They will be a heap sorrier before they get another whack at it. So far as the people of this country are concerned Canada is out in the cold to stay.

The New Castle Courier has been sued by a dancing master for $2,500. The Courier's crime consists of saying things about a five-cent dance hall and calling attention to a fight between two young girls there. All of this is alleged to have had a tendency to injure the business of the dancing master or manager, which, if there were even scattering grains of truth in the Courier's stories is a good thing for New Castle.

Suppose, asks the Wabash Plain Dealer, the suggestion of the astute Mr. Lee were adopted and the Republicans of Indiana were to enter the political campaign with bald repudiation of the record of the administration as its shibboleth, where is there a party general of reputation and ability who would undertake to handle the Republican forces, with even a suspicion of success? The Republican party, in every canvass since it came into existence, has won its victories on its record and that is its sole hope in the conflict to be fought out in the next campaign.

An Impossible Position.

(New Castle Courier.)

Chairman Lee of the Republican state committee insists upon standing as a candidate for re-election. That he has a perfect right to do. But, Mr. Lee has publicly declared his belief that a majority of the Republican voters of Indiana are opposed to the renomination of President Taft, that he cannot carry the state if nominated; also, that he is opposed to an instructed delegation to the national convention.

Now, let us suppose Mr. Lee re-elected chairman; then that the state and district conventions instruct the delegates to vote for Mr. Taft first, last and all the time at Chicago, a pretty sure conclusion; then that the convention nominates Mr. Taft as the Republican candidate for president, which it is quite sure to do; then where would Mr. Lee be at? What kind of a campaign could the Republicans of Indiana make with the chairman of the state committee publicly committed in his judgment to the defeat of the ticket? It is worse than ridiculous to talk about the re-election of Mr. Lee as chairman, it would be a crime against the party.

Editorialettes.

From the sample of college "prexies" Rushville people say last night they are led to believe they do not wear the proverbial long face and solemn mien all the time after all.

One member of the paragraphs' union observed that a woman with a hobbie skirt reminds him of an umbrella poorly rolled up, some Indian rises to remark early that an umbrella can be shut up.

The red-haired man who received a yellow necktie from his best girl for Christmas should be warned in time, or we foresee a sojourn in Reno.

The most practical use we can see for the Red Cross Seals is to seal up the mouths of the men who spit on the sidewalks.

Some lively scenes have been enacted in congress, but they are not very exciting as compared with the fifteen minutes before the last page of a newspaper goes to press.

"Guaranteed Cold Storage Eggs," is what we read in a sign the other day. As we get it eggs are laid by hens and anything more concerning their life is pure guess work.

The grocer tells us that the price of eggs has fallen considerably. Speaking of hen fruit we are reminded that eggs are very much like an automobile. They cost like the dickens and they may be worth the money. There's a little difference, however, the cost of upkeep is not so great.

Cold turkey for dinner? No? Strange ain't it?

We lamp there are fifty-three Sundays and only fifty-two paydays next year. How are we to figure out spending money for that extra Sunday?

Yes, Mr. Morgan passes the plate, but it is probably the only thing that he ever does pass.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Will Know Better Next Time.
Senator Stephenson is not guilty, but it might not be safe to do it again.—Boston Transcript.

Like the Indians.
William Jennings Bryan would have us believe that Champ Clark is a miner leaguer. It behooves William to maintain a discreet silence. He has never won a pennant.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Possible Cooking Horror.
By a little improvement of the paper bag method of cooking it is possible that soon we shall have our morning griddle cakes printed on both sides with the speeches of presidential candidates.—Albany Knickerbocker Press.

In a "Dry" State.
A clergyman received a letter from a liquor dealer asking him to furnish names of persons he thought might order whiskey. As a test he sent the addresses of six members of his congregation and received $6 as commission on six sales.—Kansas dispatch to New York Herald.

When Soup is Served.
We hope that belligerent Taxan who demands silence in lunch rooms when he eats never strolls into one of the capitol restaurants.—Washington Post.

Public Benefactor.

The claim that Lincoln had the "judicial temperament" does not stand the test. Lincoln used to throw a dozen technicalities out of the whitehouse windows every morning before breakfast.—Kansas City Times.

If They Only Were.
If men were as eager for law enforcement as they are sympathetic for lawbreakers, the business of killing would stop, or would be reduced to that minimum that is found in such countries as England, where men—be they kings, dukes or peasants—recognize the law as having authority unbreakable and inviolate.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

A Fascinating Pastime.
A gold nugget has been found in a Connecticut chicken. That is the kind of gold-mining we were cut out for. Hunting a broiled chicken for gold has its compensations, even if you don't find the gold.—Houston Post.

What to Eat.
If the cost of living is too high, if all the rest of the crops have failed, bear in mind that the prune crop this year is 140,000,000 pounds against 80,000,000 pounds last year. Let everybody eat prunes. If meat is too high try fish. If potatoes are scarce, eat turnips. If everything else fails, remember the wonderful prune crop and give thanks for the same.—Leslie's Weekly.

Thin Religion.
Col. Bryan says he doesn't expect to take any less interest in politics, but he means to go deeper into the religious end. He can't go more than a quarter of an inch into the religious end of politics as practiced in this country without striking bottom.—Kansas City Journal.

Discriminating.
The Pittsburgh Bulletin's critical headliner captions a column "Theaters and Amusements."—New York Mail.

Tyrannical Government.
Now that the district commissioners have ruled that employees wishing to absent themselves on sick leave must take oath that their illness is genuine it probably will be but another step to an order compelling the office boy to have his grandmother's funeral cortege drive down past the district building every time Ty Cobbs comes to town.—Washington Times.

Stands Well at Home.
Nobody in the south ever hit Dr. Booker Washington.—Baltimore Sun.

WARM WEATHER TO COME TOMORROW

But Cold Wave Will Continue Tonight
With Little Abatement According to Forecast.

MERCURY FALLS TO 10 ABOVE

Continued cold weather is predicted for tonight, but tomorrow, according to the official forecast issued by V. H. Church, section director of the United States weather bureau, will be slightly warmer. The big fall in temperature predicted by the bureau came last night and the temperature indicator dropped to 10 degrees above zero at 7 o'clock this morning.

With the appearance of the sun the temperature rose slowly, but the difference in temperature was not marked. At 10 o'clock this morning the temperature was 15 degrees, or only 3 degrees higher than at 7 o'clock. By noon it had risen to 23 degrees above zero, but that is the highest it ever went. After noon it began a steady decline.

There was considerable wind late yesterday afternoon and early during the evening. The maximum velocity of the wind was thirty-six miles an hour, and there was considerable wind which measured up to thirty-six miles an hour.

Tis the week after Christmas
But that's nix-come-arouse
This what happened,
At Mary's house.

Mary had a little wash,
She hung it on the line;
It took poor Mary all day long
To do that wash so fine.

And ere night came there was a pain
In little Mary's back;
She had the rheumatiz quite bad,
And a bronchial attack.

Then Mary had the doctor
A dozen times or more;
And the dollars of that doctor's bill
They numbered near a score.

When Mary got about again,
And was no longer ill,
She said: "I've had the doctor,
But I've saved the laundry bill."

Thoughtless Mary's not alone—
There are too many such—
To save a dollar will they spend Elsewhere ten times as much.

AMUSEMENTS

The Princess will show as the first picture tonight an unusual comedy entitled "A Kid From the Klondyke." It is by the Edison company and is said to be very clever. "A Hot Time in Atlantic City" is a Lubin comedy, dealing with an outing to the famous summer resort. An attraction for the near future is a feature Selig production "Lost in the Jungle."

On Friday and Saturday nights, "The Tale of Two Cities" will be the feature attraction at the Portola. The story taken from the novel of Charles Dickens is told in three reels and is complete in every detail. Tonight's program includes an Edison, "A Day at West Point Military Academy," and a Selig entitled "On Separate Paths."

"The Austin, Pa., Flood" will be the special attraction at the Palace tonight. The picture shows the scenes of destruction, following the breaking of the dam. The picture was taken immediately after the flood and all the details are shown. The wreck of the little town and the killing of hundreds of people occurred when the big dam broke and the picture gives a clear idea of the great amount of damage. The other picture is entitled, "Her Uncle's Will." It is a Solax comedy and is said to be a very fine picture. Tomorrow night Sir Walter Scott's poem, "Young Lochinvar" will be shown. It is a feature Thanhouser film.

Louis Mann, the well known character actor, will present his latest successful play, "Elevating a Husband" at English's opera house, New Year's matinee and evening, and on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 2 and 3d, with a Wednesday matinee. The play is by Clara Lipman and Samuel Shipman. "Elevating a Husband" is an American story with its scenes laid in New York City. The role Mr. Mann plays is that of a young New Yorker with no conception of the worth of bucks beyond their sale value, but gifted with a keen business acumen that makes him successful in trade. He marries a young woman of "culture" and social ambitions and the efforts of the wife to "elevate her husband and the way he permits himself to be "elevated" together with the undercurrent of satire is described as delightfully amusing. Mr. Mann will be supported by an excellent company of well known players, including Emily Ann Wellman, Charles Halton, Mary Howe, Jessie Carter, Conway Tearl, Leslie Kenyon, Sterling E. Cheseldine, Marion Holcombe, and Howard Scott.

SAVED EGGS TO GET XMAS MONEY

Local Grocers Believe That Reason For Influx on Market and Resulting Decline in Price.

DROP 10 CENTS IN 10 DAYS

The price of eggs has hit the boggan and has fallen ten cents on the dozen in as many days. Ten days ago they were selling for forty cents a dozen and now they are bringing only thirty cents. Local grocers can account for this with one of two reasons: either the hens are getting busy or country people saved their eggs to sell just before the holidays so they might have some Christmas money. Most merchants are inclined to believe the latter reason is the better one.

This cause seems the most reasonable as local merchants say they have received many bad eggs since the influx on the egg market began. Some local grocers candle all eggs bought according to the State law and determined whether or not they are good. Under this plan they are compelled to stand the loss. Grocers warn farmers that the selling of bad eggs is a law violation and prosecution may follow if the farmers are reported to the State inspectors.

OSLER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Gray Hair Is First Sign of Age. Harmless Remedy Restores to Natural Color.

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race. One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't look old before your time. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what an improvement it will make in the appearance of your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agents, Hargrove and Mullin.

LILLIAN RUSSELL

Who is Going to Make Fourth Venture on Sea of Matrimony.

AIRY, FAIRY LILLIAN

Perennially Youthful Actress Going to Marry For Fourth Time.

New York, Dec. 28.—Miss Lillian Russell, the perennially young actress, is engaged to marry Alexander P. Moore, the publisher of the Pittsburgh Leader and a power in western Pennsylvania politics. Miss Russell admits as much, and it has been confirmed by Mr. Moore, who after the manner of swains, has been calling on his fiancée. The marriage will take place in May, according to present plans.

This will be Miss Russell's fourth venture, but no one who heard her girlish giggle while confessing the latest relinquishment of her affections, would believe so. She has known Mr. Moore for about ten years, she said.

A NOVEL SITUATION CONFRONTS CONVICT

Promise of a Respite if He Can "Get Religion."

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 28.—If Benjamin Merck of Gainesville, Ga., condemned to hang for murder tomorrow, can assure Governor Slaton that he can "get religion" in the next thirty days, that length of time in the form of a respite will be granted him.

Merck has been the most disappointing of near converts. He was convicted of wife murder six months ago, and ever since has been just upon the verge of accepting faith, failing to make the goal at the last minute. Then Merck's spiritual advisers have had to begin all over again. This is the situation at present, and Merck is fearfully anxious to get religion before he goes to the gallows. Thirty days, he considers, is sufficient to make him a real believer.

Because of Merck's eagerness to "get religion" before he goes to the gallows, a delegation from Gainesville, headed by Congressman Tom Bell, called on Governor Slaton and asked that he be granted a thirty-day respite in order to make peace with God.

Congressman Bell, who was spokesman, said Merck ought to be hanged, as he was undoubtedly guilty, but that the man was truly penitent and should be given time to get religion so that he might die as a Christian and not lose his soul.

"I am inclined to grant the respite," said Governor Slaton, "if you gentlemen will assure me that Merck can get religion in thirty days."

BOGUS MONEY

Is Reported to Have Fairly Flooded Nicaragua.

New Orleans, Dec. 28.—A gigantic scheme for flooding several Central American republics with counterfeit money has been unearthed, according to messages received here. To such an extent has the scheme been carried already it is asserted that $10,000,000 actually has been put into circulation in Nicaragua. A like sum, destined to the same uses, it is alleged, has been seized. The first ten million is said to have been sent into the country via Panama and Corinto, Nicaragua, while the second consignment was discovered at Corinto, where its seizure followed promptly. A cablegram containing this information has reached New Orleans from Managua, where Minister of Finance Sandino is officially stationed.

According to the message other men higher up than the minister named are believed to have been personally interested in the transaction and to have benefited by it.

Watch Your Kidneys

Their action controls your health. Read what Foley Kidney Pills have done for your neighbor. J. W. Sharits, of Union City, says, "Over five years I suffered a great deal with my kidneys, having backache so severe that at times I suffered much misery while moving around. My kidney action was frequent, the kidneys being very weak and the secretions cloudy. In the morning on arising had dizzy spells and headaches. I was gradually growing worse when I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. In a short time the backaches left me and the kidneys became strong and their action natural. The headaches and dizziness all left, so that I again feel well and strong. Although 70 years old I am able to do a hard day's work without suffering and discomfort. This was all brought about by Foley Kidney Pills which I gladly recommend." F. B. Johnson & Co.

CLOCK MADE ALL OF STRAW

Ingenious men of many times and many lands have made numerous curious timepieces, but few of them surpass the clock built by a German shoemaker. It is made wholly of straw, several thousand pieces being used in its construction, and its total weight is seven ounces. There are eight pendulums and the mechanism is wound up by the pressing of a button, when it runs for five hours.

BOY AND EAGLE IN BATTLE

Elmer Peterson, fifteen years old, living four miles west of Little Falls, Minn., had a hard battle with an eagle and was saved from serious injury only by the arrival of a brother. The boy had shot the bird, which was in a tree. The eagle fell to the ground and immediately went at the boy with its talons. The bird's claws became fastened in the boy's clothing and the lad was unable to free himself. Elmer was badly frightened and his strength was giving out when his brother arrived and killed the eagle with a club. The bird measured five feet across the wings.

LIGHTING BY SUGAR

The suggestion has been put forward that there is every possibility that, in the near future, sugar will play an important part in the provision of a new method of artificial lighting. Experiments have shown that when disks of loaf sugar are placed on a lathe and rapidly rotated while a hammer plays lightly against them, there is an almost continuous radiation of artificial light. At present the practical value of the discovery is nil, but it is quite within the bounds of possibility that discoveries will soon be made that will render its practical application a certainty. The cause of the phenomena is not at present correctly understood, but it is probably due to some change in the formation of the sugar crystals. Cases where the act of crystallization is accompanied by flashes of light are not unknown and probably this is due to some similar cause. At any rate, this appears to be the only feasible explanation, as it has been proved that the light is not caused by the heating of the sugar during the experiment.

BAY OF FUNDY "BORE"

The Bay of Fundy "bore," or tidal wave, is a tidal phenomenon well worthy of note, as it is the longest in the world. It is caused by the sea forcing the water up the funnel-shaped bay and into the Petitcodiac river, where the water assumes the form of a white crested wave, or "bore." It occurs every time the tide comes in, and is from three to eight feet in height. The "bore" is seen to best advantage at the time of full moon, and is a very interesting sight.

CALLED HER HIS ANGEL PIE

Negro Cook Didn't Permit Use of Such Language to Her, Especially Over Phone.

The telephone bell rang yesterday afternoon in a South Side apartment. The negro woman cook answered it.

"Hello," she said.

"Is that you, cookie?" asked a man's voice at the other end.

"I'm Mr. B.—'s cook, but I ain't no cookie."

"Don't try to fool me, cookie. I know your voice."

"Look heah, what you talkin' about?"

"Now, angel pie, you fooled me once, dear heart, that way, but you can't do it again. You are by little sweet cookie, aren't you?"

"You get away from that telephone. You ahe talkin' like a fool."

With that the receiver was slammed on the hook with all the virtuous indignation of an insulted maiden.

The head of the house was standing near. Turning to him she said still fuming:

"Some man wanted to know ef I wuz 'cookie.' An' he called me some-thin' like 'angel pie.' I don't let no man call me them names—specially oveh the telephone."—Kansas City Star.

Primogeniture.

The law of primogeniture sends back its roots to the most ancient times. Away back in the patriarchal ages the first-born son had a superiority over all his brethren, and in the absence of his father was in every important sense the head of the house. Upon the death of the father he became, by the unwritten law, which could not be questioned, the priest and lord of the family, and naturally to him fell the property as well as the honors of the household. Primogeniture, wherever it is found today, is the lingering remnant of the ancient custom—a custom which common sense and justice pronounce to be as unfair as it is superstitious.

Mere Details.

A writer was describing a forthcoming work of his. He spoke most enthusiastically of the progress he had made on it.

The idea, he said, was clear in his mind—clear as crystal. All the situations were sketched out, everything that was to happen in each chapter decided upon. Why, even the titles of the chapters were written!

Just as he was riding astride the high-water mark of his enthusiasm one of those clammy, literal friends that all men have suddenly remarked:

"I see. You have everything about that novel completed except the writing and the selling of it."

Irreverence.

You know how it is when a man grows fat and the rolls of fat at the back of his neck are sort of piled one above the other, until stopped by the base of his skull. Well, a man with the rear of his neck disposed that way was sitting at the theater one evening in a seat just in front of one who isn't reverent.

The latter contemplated the exuberant layers of flesh surmounting the fat man's collar. Then, pointing to them, he remarked, sotto voce, to the companion beside him:

"Look at the plate of buckwheat cakes!"

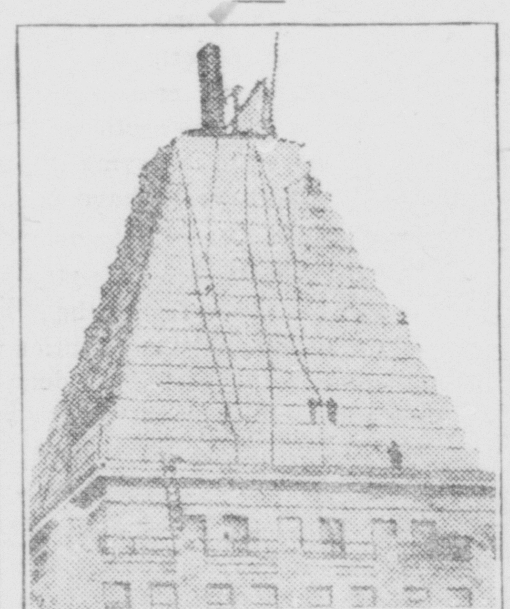

Circuitous Retribution.

"Did you help elect that man because of his personal popularity?"

"No," replied Farmer Courtossel.

"I had my suspicions of him for a long time and wanted to shove him along to where the muckrakers could get a good go at him."—Washington Star.

PYRAMID ON A SKYSCRAPER

The stone roof of the Bankers Trust Company building, at the northwest corner of Nassau and Wall streets, New York City, shown in the picture to be nearing completion, is said by the architects to be something of an experiment in design and construction. There is no other of the kind in existence. The pyramid contains twenty-three steps, each 2 feet 9 1/2 inches high by 1 foot 4 inches wide. Total height of pyramid, 94 feet 6 inches. The dimensions of its base are 70 by 65 feet. The restorations of the Mausoleum of Halicarnassus generally show this type of superstructure.

LUMINOUS TREES

There is a remarkable tree or shrub in a small gulch near some springs in western America. It is about six or seven feet in height, with a trunk, which, at its base, is three times the size of a man's wrist. It is remarkably characteristic as to its foliage, which, at certain seasons of the year, is so luminous that it can be distinguished on the darkest night for a distance of more than a mile, while in its immediate vicinity it emits sufficient light to enable a person to read the finest print. The luminous property is due to parasites.

URGES STREAMS BE CONSERVED

Dr. McMichael believes that if the church does not care for the education of its young people, it can not expect much of its posterity.

In reference to "shop talk" Dr. McMichael was reminded of a card of thanks which appeared in a Monmouth daily paper after the death of an old man who had been sprinkling the streets there for years. The widow thanked the friends and relatives for their kindness in the trite manner and then added she would continue to sprinkle the streets of Monmouth and do the business at the same old stand.

At the conference yesterday the college presidents and board of education secretary unanimously decided to ask the church at the general assembly next summer for $100,000 for the support of the U. P. colleges and theological seminaries. This is more than twice the amount which has been paid by the church previously. Forty-five thousand dollars is all that was ever requested. The conference first decided to raise the request to $75,000 and then finally to $100,000.

It was pointed out by the presidents that there is a need of more funds because of the raising of the standard set for colleges in many States. In many States it is required of all of the colleges to be recognized that they have seven departments, the heads of which shall receive not less than one thousand dollars a year.

Dr. R. M. Russell, Dr. J. Knox Montgomery and Dr. D. A. McClanahan, president of Allegheny Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa., were appointed a committee to present the deliberations of the conference to the appropriation committee of the general assembly. Dr. T. H. McMichael, Dr. R. T. Campbell and Dr. J. A. Thompson were named as a committee to present the actions of the conference to the general assembly.

The basis of distribution of the church financial support was changed to a slight extent. It was finally decided Cooper College, the youngest of the number, should receive two thousand dollars annually out of the general fund until 1915, to help it in the tribulation it is encountering as a new school.

The remainder of the fund will be distributed as follows: one-third of the whole to be divided equally among the seven institutions; three-fourths of the remaining two-thirds to be distributed among the seven institutions according to the number of students and the remaining one-fourth of the two thirds to be divided equally among the theological seminaries. The new method of distribution will apply to funds of this year.

There was some discussion over the distribution. Some of the educators felt the larger and more heavily endowed colleges should not have so much benefit as the smaller and less endowed schools. At the same time the fact was recognized that the larger schools have a greater scope and a greater work to do. Again it was realized that the smaller schools are in poor communities and have less advantages. The spirit of the discussion was excellent and ended very peaceably.

The resignation of Dr. W. T. Campbell, father of Mrs. A. W. Jamieson, who is spending the winter here and due to whose physical condition it was necessary to hold the conference here instead of Chicago as is the custom, was accepted and he was made secretary emeritus of the board of education on the same salary. He has been the secretary of the board for a number of years. It was decided that the conference shall convene with the board of education some time next May to nominate a successor to Dr. Campbell, and whose name will be put before the general assembly for its sanction.

Hereafter the conference will meet annually with the church board of education. This has not been the custom in the past. This action was not final and will be brought before the general assembly next summer for its sanction. The next annual meeting will be held at Monmouth, Ill., according to a unanimous vote of the conference. Pittsburgh made a strong bid for the meeting.

Dr. W. F. King, Secretary of Indiana Sanitary and Water Supply Association Issues Letter.

STATE WATER LEVEL RECEDES

Water Supply Question Becomes Acute in Many Counties During The Summer.

Dr. W. F. King, secretary of the Indiana Sanitary and Water Supply Association, has issued the following circular letter:

The Indiana Sanitary and Water Supply Association, in affiliation with the State Board of Health, respectfully calls public attention to the fact that, the conservation of the streams and lakes of Indiana is a matter of very great importance and should be speedily taken up. The U. S. Hydrographic Survey shows the ground water level of Indiana is receding at a rapid rate. In some localities, in the last decade, the water has fallen 20 to 50 feet.

Formerly, in the central part of the state, a well 10 to 12 feet deep would furnish abundant water for a family and its live stock at all seasons. Now, wells must be driven 30 to 40 feet and are apt to go dry in seasons of drought. In the sections of the state where flowing wells exist, many have ceased to flow and all that are still flowing show a decreased head.

All over the state it is observed that springs, formerly unfailing, have dried up or show a greatly reduced flow. It is a common remark of even our middle aged people how our rivers, creeks and branches have decreased in size.

The water supply problem becomes acute in many counties every summer. Water Companies find it necessary to issue warnings and request patrons to practice economy in the use of water. The water problem is a serious one in the White River Valley and when the slogan "Indianapolis and 500,000" is uttered, it is pertinent to ask—from whence will water be obtained for a city of this size? The ground supply is near exhaustion and White River must be depended upon. For this purpose it must be conserved in all practicable ways.

There may be no reason for immediate alarm in some sections of the state, yet the state is drying up and before fifty more years have passed the entire state will have to consider the water problem. The only step taken in this matter so far by the state, is the statute against the pollution of streams, but nothing has been done in the matter of reforestation or impounding. This Association does not desire to cause alarm but wishes to let the people know that a momentous problem must be solved in the future.

To the end that this question may be given consideration, the Indiana Sanitary and Water Supply Association in affiliation with the State Board of Health will ask the mayor of all cities to appoint delegates to the Fourth Annual Convention of the Association at Indianapolis, February 15, and 16, 1912. The program for this meeting includes papers by the leading experts of the country along the lines of sanitary and water engineering, and the problem of conserving the water supply of Indiana will be discussed in detail. Every citizen is vitally interested in these problems and every mayor should see that his city is represented at this meeting.

A new requirement for students in the U. P. colleges was made yesterday. Hereafter only those who have completed fifteen units in a high school course and are taking some college work will be regarded as students. This is due to the higher standard of work being set by colleges generally.

The conference voted the church board of education in the future shall be a clearing house for the colleges. This is a new relation existing between the two departments and was made to exist to bring the two into closer connection as their work is along the same line.

Dr. Jane Sherzer, president of Oxford's Women's Seminary of Oxford, Ohio, the oldest protestant women's college in the United States, talked to the college presidents after they convened yesterday afternoon. She dwelt on the work her institution is doing and pointed out its close relation to the United Presbyterian church.

Those who were here are Dr. T. H. McMichael, president of Monmouth college, Monmouth, Ill.; Dr. R. M. Russell, president of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa.; Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, president of Maskingum college, New Concord, O.; Dr. J. A. Thompson, president of Tarkio college, Tarkio, Mo.; Dr. Ross T. Campbell, president of Cooper college, Sterling, Kansas; Dr. Russell Graham, science professor of Monmouth college; Dr. D. A. McClanahan, president of Allegheny Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Dr. Joseph Kyle, president of the Xenia Theological Seminary, Xenia, Ohio.
